ROSSLAND IS A RIVAL OF THE GREAT KLONDYLE.

Four Million Dollars Taken Out in Nuggets Without Difficulty--Population Growing.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—E. L. Ross arrived at his storehouse from Rossland, the principal camp of the Laectenia district, this morning. He is president of the Elias Gold Mining Company. Rossland is about one hundred and fifty miles north of Spokane and directly south of the Klondyke country. Mr. Clark says that four millions in precious metals have been taken out of this district and it has only been worked for three years.

The climate is temperate and the country is capable of rapid development. This is in the Laectenia district, which now has a population of thirty thousand. Three years ago it was practically unsettled.

SETTLED BY TOMORROW NIGHT.

Definite Settlement of the Strike Said to Be at Hand.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 31.—According to the young manager of M. A. Hanna & Co.'s mines the coal strike will be at an end before tomorrow night.

The operators are said to have offered the men sixty-four cents a ton, pending arbitration. If the miners would consent to this arrangement, according to the operators, they will be assured that they shall receive no less than sixty cents by the arbitrators, and as much more as the arbitrators may deem proper.

Five Hundred Miles of Snow.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

SEATTLE, Aug. 31.—William Ogilvie, the official surveyor of the northwest territory, says there are five hundred miles of gold in the Klondyke district. The only reqnirement necessary is quick, cheap access to the land.

A BIT TOO CREDULOUS.

How a Dead Beat is a Horse in and Mr. Tatum is a Horse Out.

Yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock a man came to Vanstory's livery stable and stated that he wished to hire a horse to ride out in the country. Foreman Stewart did not like the man's appearance.

As Mr. Stewart expressed it, "he did not have the face of a man you would care to do business with." When asked his native heath he said he came from Roxboro, but declined to make any attempt to get some one to identify him. Mr. Stewart promptly told him that he did not believe he would return the horse, and he took no offense at it. Stewart says the man was of medium height, dark complexion, with a defect in one eye, and had bum written all over him in large capitals.

Not to be put out by one rebuff he went to Tatum and Taylor's stable and told Mr. Tatum he wished to hire a horse to ride out to Fleming's, only some three or four miles distant, paid a dollar for the horse and said he would be back in the course of an hour or so.

He was given a large, brown horse, valued at $100 and one of the best saddlers in the stable. He did not return within the hour as promised, but Mr. Tatum thought he had been delayed for some reason, and went home. When he went to the stables this morning and found the horse still out he experienced all the sensations of a man who has bought a gold brick at a bargain.

Telegrams were sent to Graham, Liberty and other points. It is learned that the fellow tried to sell the horse and saddle for $15 before he had gotten three miles from town.

Mr. Tatum is now on his trail and he will probably be easily caught as he gave abundant evidence of being an amateur in the buncoing business. The name he gave was Johnston.

DEATH OF MR. J. E. THOM.

An Aged and Highly Respected Citizen Passes Away.

Mr. J. E. Thom, of whose death at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon we briefly told in yesterday's TELEGRAM, was one of Greensboro's oldest and most highly respected citizens. Of a quiet and unassuming nature, he was loved and respected for his many virtues by all who knew him.

He was born and reared near Greensboro, and spent most of his life here. Many years ago he moved to Missouri, but soon removed back to Greensboro, where he spent his declining years in peace, surrounded by his loved ones. He had, for a number of years, made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Mary E. Thacker, where his every want was anticipated by loving hearts and kind hands.

The funeral was conducted from the residence of Mrs. Thacker, on South Ashe street, this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. J. Henry Smith, D. D., who has been the pastor of the deceased for many years, conducted the burial services.

The following friends of the deceased acted as pall bearers: W. S. Moore, John H. Rankin, C. M. Vanstory, J. W. Scott, Jesse R. Wharton and R. G. Glenn.

A large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends followed the remains to their final resting place in Greene Hill cemetery, where the last sad rites were performed, and the body consigned to the dust from whence it sprung.

IS BOB NEWLIN IMPLICATED?

HE IS BEING TRIED IN COURT FOR BOMB THROWING.

Some Damaging Testimony---The Defendant Not Put on The Stand.

The case of State vs. Bob Newlin, colored, charged with being implicated in the bomb-throwing at Job Thigpen's house one night in July, was called in court this morning. Bob is defended by Artorneys John A. Barringer and D. Schenck, Jr., while Solicitor Bynum is representing the State.

The State put several witnesses on the stand. The defendant had no witnesses. The first witness put on the stand by the State was Ransom Thigpen, who swore that he was living in the house with Job Thigpen at the time of the bomb-throwing. He stated that the house is on East Washington street, beyond the Southern railroad. About 12 o'clock of the night in question he was awakened from his sleep by a terrific explosion. He jumped out of bed and ran out on the front, when he discovered that one end of the porch had been blown off by the explosion. The house is about ten feet from the sidewalk, and when he went to the gate he noticed fresh buggy tracks close to the sidewalk, in front of the house. He examined the place where the ground had been torn up and saw that dynamite was the explosive used.

S. P. White was the next witness put on the stand. He stated that he lived up the street from Thigpen's. He was sitting on his porch about 12 o'clock when he saw Bob Newlin drive by with two men in his carriage. He could not identify the two men in the carriage, but swore it was Newlin who was driving. Just after this he heard the explosion.

W. H. McGuire said he boarded at a house on E. Washington street, west of Thigpen's house; he had been calling below Mr. Thigpen's on night of the bomb throwing; retuning home met Bob Newlin driving a carriage, in which were two men; could distinguish one of them as a white man; noticed the white man smoking cigarette; could not distinguish other man. This was just after explosion occurred.

Queenie McMast testified she lived in that part of town; about three quarters of an hour after explosion Bob Newlin drove to her house, got off carriage and knocked at her door; asked her to come out; Bob had two men with him; could not distinguish them, as they remained in carriage; did not know whether they white or black; she got in carriage with them and went as far as race track.

W. A. Scott and M. A. Whittington were the officers who arrested Bob. When they heard the explosion they could not at first locate it. Mr. Scott testified that he saw Bob driving his carriage at a rapid gait and ordered him to halt. Bob said: "I can't, boss. I ain't got time." Scott then ran out into the street to intercept the carriage.

He jumped between the wheels and caught the lines from Bob's hands. As he did the two men jumped from the opposite side of the carriage. It was dark and the two fleeing men could not be distinguished. When the officers asked Bob about these two men he professed to know nothing about them, denying that he even knew they were in his carriage.

Mr. Barringer opened the argument for the defense before court adjourned for dinner. Upon the assembling of court after dinner Solicitor Bynum made the prosecuting speech.

He was followed by D. Schenck, Jr., for the defense. As the defense introduced no evidence they were allowed the last speech.

Jail Stormers Repulsed.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Aug. 31.—A mob attacked the Greenville jail yesterday and attempted to lynch John A. Gafford, who killed Francis Bartow Lloyd, the writer, last Wednesday. The mob was repulsed by the sheriff, but during the fight four prisoners escaped. Governor Johnston ordered out the militia, anticipating another attempt.

To Summon Reserves.

MADRID, Aug. 30.—At a cabinet council held today, it was decided to summon the next class of 80,000 reserves, 27,000 of whom will be sent to Cuba, and 13,000 to the Phillipine Islands. The minister, when questioned, denied that the council was occupied with the subject of colonial reforms, with political questions.

FOOTBALL TEAM REORGANIZED.

Games to be Arranged With Leading City and College Teams.

The Greensboro Athletic Association met last night for the purpose of reorganizing its football team. This was effected by the election of Harry C. Martin and Robert I. Katz, managers, and R. D. Douglas, temporary captain.

The ball-ground north of the city will be used for the games and the vacant Fisher lot on North Elm will probably be used for practice games.

Steps will be taken looking to the arrangement of games with the University of North Carolina, Guilford College, Danville, Va., Winston, Wilmington and probably a Thanksgiving game with Charlotte. Among those who have reported as candidates for the team thus far are:

William A. Devin, C. G. Wright, J. S. Caldwell, J. F. Jordan, D. A. Kirkpatrick, R. D. Douglas, C. P. Sapp, Garland Daniel, O. D. Boycott, Herman Buchanan, E. L. Gilmer, Joe Causey, J. P. Turner, George Tate. It should be understood that no men are selected as yet for the team and there is not a place on it but is open to the man who shows he can fill it properly. Those mentioned above merely serve as a nucleus and good material will always be abundantly welcome. All those who are interested in clean, manly sport are invited to take part in practice games and the assurance can be given that those who show themselves best fitted for the various positions will get them.

The practice games will begin in the course of a week or ten days, or so soon as the weather becomes sufficiently cool.

Grand Lodge to Meet.

J. C. Drewry, of Raleigh, secretary of the Grand Lodge of Masons, has called a special communication of that order to be held in Durham on September 4th.

The occasion is the laying of the corner stone of the public library building in that city. Some of the most prominent citizens of the state have been invited to be present, and the occasion will be a memorable one.

State Auditor Ayer announces himself as in favor of a political camp meeting to decide on a "white man's platform."

ABOUT ORATORY.

Rev. W. H. Milburn, chaplain of the United States Senate, has been in England comparing English and American oratory, very much to the disadvantage of the latter. The English papers have given Mr. Milburn to understand that his performance is not altogether grateful. The chaplain seems to belong to that class of Anglomaniacs who fancy that the surest way to curry favor with the English public is to decry whatever is American. The Englishman, like the sensible man everywhere, is disgusted with this truculency.

There has been a good deal of unnecessary pulling of the Eagle's tail by Americans at home and abroad; a bit too much of insisting that "we are the greatest people on earth;" but that is preferable to this pusillanimous cringing to foreign audiences. It is not absolutely necessary to either proclaim one's self better than all the rest of the world because one is an American nor to apologize for one's nationality. The first marks a man as an egotist and the last as a sycophant. Unfortunately the majority of Americans who travel seem to take one of these courses. It is small wonder that the American is not very highly regarded abroad.

Mr. Milburn compliments the Englishman on his "aristocratic hesitancy in speech;" if he had shown a little more hesitancy in his silly criticism of his fellow Americans he would be in better repute there and here.

THE TREASURY REPORT.

The treasury report for the month of August shows a deficit, in round numbers, of $14,000,000. The advocates of the Dingley law said repeatedly that prosperity could come only when abundant revenue had been provided for the government through a high tariff. These same organs are declaring that prosperity is at hand. If every succeeding day, under the present tariff, sees the deficiency grow larger, we should like to know what connection there is between abundant revenue for the government and good times for the people.

It would seem to have been a "confidence" game they were playing. If a $14,000,000 hole in the treasury restores confidence and brings prosperity, we should like to be informed as to the results, if this law were to yield a surplus. Evidently prosperity is not troubling itself about the theories of politicians; it seems to have it in for the high tariff howlers especially.

The probabilities are that good times have come again because it is impossible for commercial conditions to remain always at the low ebb of the last few years. The average protectionist is quite as ignorant of why times are good now as he was of why times were bad. The change has come despite him, not through him.

WHATEVER lingering doubts remained as to Secretary Sherman's growing imbecility has been dissipated; he is going out to Ohio to advocate Mark Hanna's re-election.

THE result of Seth Low's attempt to drag Jno. J. Ingalls' "iridescent dream" into New York politics will probably be that Tammany, which is by no means so particular, will carry off the mayoralty of that metropolis. The wigwam warrior is not troubled about purity in politics, but he dilates with satisfaction from the top of his eagle feathers to the toe of his moccasin when he sniffs the near approach of municipal pie.

BEN TILLMAN says he is going north to speak on the "general cussedness of politics." He does well to get out of South Carolina. The people down there are having an object lesson that suffices, without any gab on the topic.

THE exodus to the Klondyke is not likely to be increased by the report of a returned miner that the only way to sleep comfortably is between two sledge dogs.

AN exchange says that not many years ago New England women smoked. The New England woman of today contents herself with making other people smoke.

STAR POINTER'S recent record seems to indicate an intention on the part of the horse to show the bicycle that it is "not the only pebble on the beach."

THE American farmer now employs all his between-whiles in kicking himself because he did not make his acreage of wheat larger last fall.

IF THE Reuublican party is responsible for the high price of wheat, who is responsible for that recent flunk of ten cents?

At the closing session of the Grand Army of the Republic, in Buffalo, N. Y., it was voted to recommend that the next encampment take favorable action on the invitation to meet in Richmond, Va., in 1898.

The Greek government has replied to the request of the powers for a statement of the revenue it will be able to assign as a guarantee for an indemnity loan, that since the amount of the indemnity has been fixed, it is unable to give an answer.

German Catholics are said to be opposed to establishing a college at Washington for the higher education of women. The Sisters of Notre Dame, who have charge of the project, are confident that the college will be established.

FACULTY MEETING.

Getting Ready for the Opening of the Graded Schools.

The graded school faculty met yesterday afternoon to lay out plans and discuss methods for the prosecution of their work more successfully the coming year. All the teachers have returned from their vacation in good trim for the year's work, and with a determination to make, if possible, the coming year the best in the history of our graded schools.

Another meeting of the faculty will be held this afternoon.

The schools will open tomorrow, and it is to be hoped they will open well. Greensboro is justly proud of her splendid graded school system, and if our people wish the schools to keep abreast of the times they should lend their aid and influence in making the schools more proficient. In no way can this be done to a greater advantage than in encouraging and assisting in every possible way the teachers who have charge of your children.

Start your children the first day, and thus let the schools have a full opening.

Improved Order of Red Men.

Efforts are being made to organize a tribe of the Improved Order of Red Men at this place. Everybody has heard of the Red Men, one of the best secret fraternal societies in existence.

A great many traveling men are members of the order, and in many cities their membership is numbered by thousands.

We understand that nearly enough names have been secured to organize the tribe here, and it will probably be organized in a few days.

Tennis Championship.

It is the purpose of our lawn tennis enthusiasts to have, at an early date, a tournament to decide the championship of the city. Some of the players have been practicing all summer, and some of them have developed into spledid players.

After the city championship has been decided some of the near-by towns may be challenged for a match game.

Sailors Passing Through.

Nearly everynight for the last week or two sailors have passed through Greensboro on the Chatanooga-Norfolk limited. Last night there were nine of the "Jack tars."

They belong to the United States Navy, and are being transferred from Norfolk to San Francisco.

Some Neat Work.

C. L. Bocrie, has has recently located in our city, is an expert sign painter of many years experience. He is doing some neat work for THE TELEGRAM, and has executed several pieces of work around town which show that show he is a painter of more than ordinary skill. He resides on Bragg street.

To be President for Life.

PARIS, Aug. 30.—The city is thawn into a frenzy of enthusiasm over the welcome to be extended President Faure on his return on Tuesday next from his visit to Russia. Already the principal streets and buildings are being decorated with flags and bunting. A group of tradesmen held a meeting yesterday and resolved to erect a grand stand and triumphal arch and committees are busy in all quarters of the city. The feature of the whole thing is that all is done spontaneously by the citizens, with no attempt at official organization, while President Faure can have no idea of the reception in store for him. The excitement is reaching such a pitch that there is talk of making August 30th the national fete day instead of July 14th, and also instituting life presidencies, with President Faure as the first incumbent.

Duncan Withdraws.

By Wire to the THE TELEGRAM.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 30.—John T. Duncan issued a card today withdrawing from the Senatorial race. His object in entering was, he says, to be able to confront ex-Gov. Evans with proof of the charges of corruption he made last summer.

A BIG CELEBRATION.

High Point Juniors to Present a Flag to the Graded School.

Guilford Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., of High Point, is preparing for a big celebration about three weeks hence. A flag will be presented to the graded school of High Point.

The boys are expecting a big crowd and will entertain the visitors handsomely. A big barbecue will be one of the attractions.

The Juniors from all over the state are invited, and especially are the Greensboro Juniors urged to be present. A date will be announced and a formal invitation extended later.

Dr. Chas. D. McIver, president of the Normal college, and Hon. C. H. Mebane, state superintendent of public instruction, will make addresses. Local speakers will also be on hand.

Her Cargo on Fire.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Aug. 30.—The British steamship Oswestry, Captain Wilson, arrived here this morning from Huevla, with her cargo of pyrites on fire. The fire was confined to holds two and three. As soon as the steamer was docked, the tug Hercules commenced to pour water into the holds where the fire was. When the fire is extinguished, the cargo will be unloaded and placed on lighters.

NEWS OF THE TAR HEEL STATE.

The saw mill and cotton gin of Sneed Bros., near Raleigh, was burned yesterday.

Some exceptionally fine racing is promised at the Elizabeth City fair in October.

It is claimed that Raleigh will vote the $50,000 bond issue next Tuesday by at least 1,000 majority.

There is said to be very little sentiment in North Carolina in favor of compulsory education.

R. C. Rivers, manager of the Caucasian, has resigned as deputy sheriff in order to devote his entire time to the paper.

State Auditor Ayer announces himself as in favor of a political camp meeting to decide on a "white man's platform."

The populists and republicans in Durham county are preparing to fuse; the former will be given county offices and the latter the congressman in '98.

It is now conceded that Rev. W. A. Patillo, colored, of Oxford, will be made president of the Colored Institute for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind at Raleigh.

Building and loan associations say that the Supreme Court of the state is hostile to foreign corporations and that makes it difficult to enforce contracts in this state.

The jury yesterday returned a verdict of not guilty in the Barber murder case at Salisbury. As the charge was murder in the first degree, this verdict liberates Barber entirely.

A special to the Asheville Citizen from Cranberry says: George Pritchard, sheriff of Mitchell county, and a brother of Senator Pritchard, who was shot through the lung by a desperado last Friday morning, will probably live. The Senator is with him.

Railroad Commissioners Wilson will deny the governor's right to remove move them from office, and in case he does so will carry the matter into the courts. The third commissioner, Dr. Abbott, will refuse to recognize new men until the courts have passed upon the matter.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S MEETING.

IT WAS HELD AT WEST MARKET CHURCH LAST NIGHT.

Fine Music and Splendid Addresses--A Large and Appreciative Audience was Present.

The union meeting of the various young people's religious societies of the city, in West Market street church last night, was quite a success.

The church was decorated for the occasion with banners and mottoes of the different societies.

On the organ were the emblems of the three principal societies of the city—a maltese cross on the left, representing the Epworth League; the letters B. Y. P. U. on a diamond-shaped card, representing the Baptist Young People's Union, in the centre, and the letters C. E., on right, representing the Christian Endeavor Society, of which there are four organizations in Greensboro.

The audience was a large and appreciative one. Many were there who, perhaps, learned of these societies what they had not before known.

The choir was composed of members of the different young people's societies, and was led by M. S. Sherwood with the cornet and E. S. Wills with the flute. The music was of a high order and enjoyed by all.

The opening prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Egbert W. Smith, after which Prof. Chas. L. Raper, in behalf of the West Market street Epworth League, delivered the address of welcome in a happy manner.

The response was made by Dr. J. T. Johnson, of the Baptist Young People's Union.

George R. Dupuy, of the Christian Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church, made an adddress on "Young People's Societies and their Relation to the Church." Mr. Dupuy has been engaged in this kind of work for a number of years and is well prepared to speak on this topic. He handled his subject well.

The next address was by Walter W. Mendenhall, of the Christian Endeavor society of the Friends church, who spoke on "Young Peoples' Societies and Their Relation to Christian Citizenship." Mr. Mendenhall is a living example of the truths of whic his subject was intended to bring out, and his address was therefore listened to with much interest and attention.

Prof. W. A. Murray, of the Christian Endeavor Society of Westminster Presbyterian church, next spoke on "Young People's Societies and Their Benefit to Society." Professor Murray's address covered the ground well and showed that in public speaking he was no novice.

The last address was by J. Norman Wills, of the Christian Endeavor Society of Grace Methodist Protestant church, his subject being "To What Extent Can the Different Societies Co-operate?" Mr. Wills has long been an ardent and enthusiastic worker in young people's religious societies and has his heart in the work. His address last night contained much thought.

The addresses by all these young gentlemen were above the average, and showed that our young people are alive to the importance of this work.

The closing prayer was offered by Rev. J. F. McCulloch, editor of Our Church Record, and Rev. J. E. Gay, pastor of Centenary Methodist church, pronounced the benediction.

Dropped Dead.

A telegram was received here today stating that Capt. A. A. Iseley dropped dead at Manteo, Dare county, yesterday afternoon. It is thought that rheumatism of the heart was the cause of his death.

He was a brother of Mrs. L. M. Clymer, who resides on Asheboro street, and was well known in Greensboro.

Capt. Iseley's home was in Burlington, where he was formerly a prominent business man. For several years he has been in the revenue business, with headquarters at Durham.

His remains will be brought to Burlington tomorrow for interment.
